

Bananas Fringe Conference Agenda (DRAFT)

Monday 8th July 2019

Timing	What?	Notes
8pm	Optional minibus transport from Leicester train station to accommodation	Please confirm your interest in this when you book – details confirmed closer to the date

Tuesday 9th July 2019

Timing	What?	Who?
9am – 9.30am	Registration and refreshments
9.30am – 10.00am	Introductions – warm up – overview of the day	Dr Emma Fieldhouse Future We Want
10.00am – 11.30am	Meta Communications workshop Your success revolves around your communication skills, specifically your meta-communication skills. Psychologists define meta-communication as the sum of your verbal and non-verbal communication. More than just your words. If your words say one thing and your meta-communications another, then your words lose, every-time. Have you ever said “I’ve told them a thousand times, already?”. Really? Are you sure? In this session, Dave will introduce his highly effective system for unearthing your true, creative and authentic self, to develop a personal brand that enables you to exert game-changing influence.	Dave Evans Act Sustainably (founder of Act Sustainably TV) Dave Evans has studied master communicators in the world of theatre, deconstructing their techniques, reconstructing and sequencing the most useful elements, to develop a unique meta-communication system.
11.30 – 11.45am	Refreshments/ reflection/ networking

11.45am – 12.30pm	Bananas latest <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *newest material for facilitators *climate change latest *research on game facilitators Plus –Creating Your Stories – what works best when playing the Bananas game	Dr Emma Fieldhouse + workshop
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lunch/reflection/networking
1.30pm – 3pm	The 2019 Sustainability Games Make-Off “this is the most fun workshop I have ever been to!” Join Leicester’s Alex Moseley who will get you making your own green games within minutes - get creating your own fun interactive games with a sustainability twist :o)	Dr Alex Moseley University of Leicester and Chair of the Playful Learning Committee
3.00 – 3.30pm	Refreshments/ reflection/ networking
	PARALLEL SESSIONS
3.30 – 5pm	A Research focus group with HBAB? facilitators – This is the second stage of a research project to demonstrate the positive impacts of using the HBAB game on facilitators	Dr Emma Fieldhouse Future We Want
3.30 – 5pm	B Game formats – Why educational games MUST be fun first	Josef Miccalef Malta University
5pm	CLOSE
6pm – late	Optional meal out in Leicester’s tastiest, vegetarian/vegan southern Indian restaurant (£25 per head to include buffet food, 1 drink and transport to and from venue)	Please add this when you book

Wednesday 10th July 2019

Timing	What?	Who?
	PARALLEL SESSIONS
9.00am – 11.00am	A Playtesting new carbon footprint games An interactive workshop testing new carbon footprint/climate change board games designed by students from Malta University	Josef Miccalef Malta University
9.00am – 11.00am	B New uses for old bananas? An interactive workshop to get you to challenge your own use of the bananas game and expand the cards you play with and the ways you use the game – plus agreeing a collaborative research framework for collecting data on HBAB? at your organisation	Dr Emma Fieldhouse Future We Want
11.00am – 11.15am	Refreshments/ reflection/ networking
11.15am – 12.00pm	Collaborative summary of learning Evaluation Fringe close	All
12.00pm – 1.00pm	Registration for Playful Learning Conference
1pm	Optional minibus transport from accommodation to Leicester train station	Please confirm when you book